

The lus Commune Amsterdam Masterclass for PhD researchers will take place on Thursday 25 June 2015. Registration will open soon. The deadline for registration will be 15 April 2015.

During this Masterclass PhD researchers will be given the opportunity to present and discuss the methodological framework of their PhD thesis and related methodological issues or problems encountered during research. In preparation of the Masterclass participants will be asked to send in a 5 to 10 page paper, the highlights of which should be presented during a 10 minute presentation during the Masterclass. Both the paper and presentation should – at least partly – focus on the methodological aspects of the research. After this presentation, there will be time for 35 minutes of feedback and discussion. Feedback will be provided by an expert in the field of research as well as by fellow PhD researchers.

Participants are asked to contact an expert in their field themselves.

This Masterclass is aimed at PhD researchers in the first year of their research. Participation in this Masterclass is free for all lus Commune researchers and a mandatory part of the lus Commune training.
