

Ius Commune Conference 2019

Workshop: Artificial Intelligence and Fundamental Rights

Friday, 29 November (09.00 - 12.00)

Building: Oude Valk

Room: Zeger van Hee

Participants

Theme AI and fundamental rights

Chair: Anton Vedder (KU Leuven)

09.00 - 09.25 Prof.Dr. Anton Vedder (KU Leuven)

Welcome, Opening & AI and the Ethics behind Fundamental Rights – What Ethics?

09.25 - 09.45 Natalie Smuha (KU Leuven)

The Promise & Pitfalls of a Fundamental Rights-based Approach to Artificial Intelligence

09.45 - 10.00 Discussion

10.00 - 10.15 Coffee / Tea

10.15 - 10.35 Erlis Themeli (EUR) and Stephan Philipsen (Utrecht University)

Applying AI in Courts: Opportunities and Challenges from a Human Rights Perspective

10.35 - 10.55 Laurens Naudts (KU Leuven)

Justice beyond Design: The Manifestations of Inequality in Automation

10.55 - 11.15 Maja Brkan (Maastricht University)

European Freedom of Elections and Democracy in the Wake of Artificial Intelligence

11.15 - 11.30 Discussion

11.30 - 12.00 Panel Debate