

Workshop Comparative Constitutional and Administrative Law

Ius Commune Conference 2007

Thursday, 29 November (14.00 - 18.00)

Location: Hotel Bedford, Quai Saint Léonard 36

Room: Val-Saint-Lambert

Participants

Theme: Comparative Perspectives on the Law of Parliamentary Investigations

Chair: Prof. Luc Verhey (Maastricht University)

This workshop provides an opportunity for researchers from different jurisdictions to meet and share their experiences and opinions as regards the law and practice of parliamentary investigations, inquiries, enquetes etc. Attention shall be devoted to issues such as the relation between parliamentary investigations and court procedures running in parallel, overlaps between investigations conducted by different parliaments, as well as the differences between national procedures and procedures conducted by the European Parliament.

Speakers: Prof. Henk Kummeling, University of Utrecht
Prof. Jean-Claude Scholsem, University of Liège
Dr. Christine Neuhold, Maastricht University
Mr. Sandor Loeffen, Maastricht University