

Co-organised by ACCESS Europe and VU-CELS

A Roundtable with Peter Lindseth, on 10th October 2014

What's in a label? Understanding the EU in constitutional, executive, and/or administrative terms

A discussion of the nature of integration, and the nature of its legitimacy, with

Peter Lindseth (University of Connecticut Law School/Tilburg Law School)

Chris Lord (ARENA, University of Oslo)

Leonard Besselink (UvA Law)

Ben Crum (VU Political Science)

Joana Mendes (UvA Law)

Chaired by Gareth Davies (VU Law)

Presentations by the speakers will be followed by time for discussion. All are welcome, but space is limited. Please register by email with Gareth Davies at g.t.davies@vu.nl

1.30 pm – 5 pm, followed by drinks.

Room A 1.01, Faculty of Law, Oudemanhuispoort, University of Amsterdam

The roundtable is occasioned by Professor Lindseth's visit to the Netherlands as KNAW visiting professor at Tilburg Law School, and his recent publication of 'Equilibrium, Demoi-cracy, and Delegation in the Crisis of European Integration' 15 German Law Journal (2014) which serves as background reading and inspiration for the discussion. On Thursday the 9th there will also be a PhD workshop with Professor Lindseth on methodological approaches to legitimacy. For details contact Joana Mendes at j.m.mendes@uva.nl