

Workshop Company Law

Ius Commune Conference 2014

Friday, 28 November (14.30 – 16.30)

Building: John McIntyre Centre

Room: Duddingston

Participants

Theme: The role of shareholders, directors, auditors and gatekeepers in meeting, fulfilling and achieving the long-term interests of the corporation

Chairs: David Cabrelli (Edinburgh University) and Mieke Olaerts (Maastricht University)

14.30 – 14.35 Opening remarks

14.35 – 14.55 Katarzyna Chalackiewicz-Ładna (PhD student, Edinburgh University)
The long-term interests in the decision-making processes of company directors - a tale of a desperate hunt for content and scope

14.55 – 15.15 Ekrem Solak (PhD student, Edinburgh University)
Auditor independence at the EU level after the financial crisis

15.15 – 15.45 David Cabrelli and Irene-Marie Esser (Edinburgh University and UNISA/Open University, UK)
Share Ownership Structure and Corporate Law: The Cases of South Africa and the UK

15.45 – 16.10 Richard Stevens (Stellenbosch University, South Africa)
Best Interest and Oppressive Conduct: Never the twain shall meet?

16.10 – 16.30 General discussion, closing remarks & towards Ius Commune 2015