

Workshop Environmental Law II

Ius Commune Conference 2015

Friday, 27 November (14.00 – 16.00)

Building: Oude Valk

Room: Vergaderzaal (DV1 91.55)

Participants

Theme Discovering Trends in EU and International Environmental Law

This additional session will provide the opportunity to PhD students of the Environmental Law research group to present their research projects that support the transboundary environmental research programme. The presentations need to concentrate on a specific part of the whole research project, by delivering a sharp presentation of 12 minutes, after which reflection and discussion will follow.

Chair: Marjan Peeters (Maastricht University)

14.00 – 14.05 Marjan Peeters (Maastricht University)
Opening

14.05 – 14.25 Cathy Suykens (KU Leuven)
Comparing Flood Risk Management in Transboundary Basins from a Resilience Perspective

14.25 – 14.45 Yen Trân (Utrecht University)
The Fisheries Management Cooperation Regime in Disputed Waters – The Case of the South China Sea Disputes

14.45 – 15.05 Ancui Liu (Maastricht University)
New Chances for EU Member States to Control Environmental Risks from GMO Cultivation? A Critical Reflection

15.05 – 15.25 Yixin Xu (Erasmus University)
The Institutional Design of Multilateral Funds for Forest Carbon Projects in Developing Countries: A Comparative Law and Economics Analysis...

15.25 – 15.45 Chih-Ching Lan (Erasmus University Rotterdam)
Redirect REDD to Incorporating Property Right-based Management

15.45 – 16.00 General discussion