

Workshop Taking Stock of the Open Method of Coordination

Ius Commune Conference 2016

Thursday, 24 November (14.00 - 18.00)

Building: Hotel Van der Valk

Room: B Two

Participants

Chair Mark Dawson (Hertie School of Governance)

Theme Overall trajectory and policy-specific functioning of the OMC

14.00 - 14.15 Evangelia Psychogiopoulou and Bruno De Witte (Maastricht University)
Welcome

14.15 - 14.35 Bruno De Witte (Maastricht University; European University Institute)
The OMC in the system of EU competences and sources of law

14.35 - 14.55 Eleni De Becker (KU Leuven)
The role of the social OMC in the Europe 2020 strategy and the EU economic monitoring process

14.55 - 15.15 Stéphane de la Rosa (University of Valenciennes and Hainaut-Cambresis)
The OMC in the field of health care: Is it still relevant for qualifying the coordinating process of the open method?

15.15 - 15.45 Discussion

15.45 - 16.15 Coffee break

Chair Bruno De Witte (Maastricht University; European University Institute)

16.15 - 16.35 Åse Gornitzka (University of Oslo)
The dynamics of institutionalizing modes of governance arrangements: The case of the OMC in education policy

16.35 - 16.55 Evangelia Psychogiopoulou (Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy)
Architecture and impact of the cultural OMC: A case of policy coordination?

16.55 - 17.15 Beryl ter Haar (Leiden University)
EU youth policy, the OMC and the needs of young persons neither in employment, nor education or training (NEET)

17.15 - 18.00 Discussion