

Ius Commune Conference 2021

Workshop: Covid-19 and EU Law

Friday, 26 November (9.00 – 12.00)

The COVID-19 pandemic which has the European Union in its grip since March 2020, is proving to become one of the largest challenges the EU had to face in its history. This panel on the impact of COVID-19 crisis on various areas of European Law will analyze the response mechanisms to the pandemic and the many questions of constitutional, institutional, substantive and administrative European Law these raise.

Chair: Sabrina Röttger-Wirtz (Maastricht University)

Panel 1

09.00 – 09.10 Opening

09.10 – 09.30 Anne Pieter van der Mei (Maastricht University)
COVID-19 and the Quest for a Stronger European Health Union

09.30 – 09.50 Anniek de Ruijter (University of Amsterdam)
The Current and Potential Role of the EU in Global Health

09.50 – 10.10 Sybe A. de Vries (Utrecht University)
Fundamental Social Rights Protection and Covid-19 in the EU: Constraints & Possibilities

10.10 – 10.30 Discussion

10.30 – 10.45 Coffee break

Chair: Sabrina Röttger-Wirtz (Maastricht University)

Panel 2

10.45 – 11.05 Robin Gadbled (KU Leuven)
Earmarking and conditionality: on the multiple purposes of the Recovery Fund

11.05 – 11.25 Ton van den Brink (Utrecht University)
Models of Solidarity in the EMU. The Impact of COVID-19 After Weiss

11.25 – 11.45 Gosia Kozak (Utrecht University)
Competition Law and the COVID-19 Pandemic – Towards More Room for Public Interest Objectives?

11.45 – 12.00 Discussion