

Ius Commune Conference 2023

Workshop: The EU's Accession to the ECHR: Status Quo & Future Perspectives (II)

Friday, 12 May (14.00 - 17.00)

Room 3

Participants

This workshop will bring together early career researchers and established scholars from the Ius Commune network to discuss their ongoing work on the overarching topic of the EU's Accession to the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR) and the future relationship between the EU and the ECHR systems. Participants will discuss the current state of the accession negotiations and the amendments required by the Court of Justice of the European Union in Opinion 2/13 to reflect the specificities of the EU legal order, as well as their ongoing work on the multifaceted implications of the interaction between the EU and the ECHR systems.

Chairs: Teresa Cabrita (KU Leuven) and Matteo Bonelli (Maastricht University)

Part II Future Perspectives

14.00 - 15.15 Panel 3. Broader Implications of the EU's Accession to the ECHR

Nozizwe Dube (Maastricht University)

Intersectionality within European Non-Discrimination Law: The Different Stances of the Two European Courts analysed in Light of the EU Accession to the ECHR

Alicja Slowik (KU Leuven/Geneva University)

The Principle of Effectiveness: A Tool for Boosting Fundamental Rights Protection in the EU Legal Order?

Discussant: Victor Davio (KU Leuven)

15.15 - 15.30 Coffee break

15.30 – 16.45 Panel 4. The Future of EU-ECHR Relationships

Lucia van der Meulen (KU Leuven)

EU Legal Opportunity Structures for Human Rights Litigation and the Potential of ECHR Accession

Elin Börjedal (Maastricht University)

Accession of the EU to the ECHR: The EU's Positive Obligations to Protect Asylum Seekers at its External Borders

Discussant: Kushtrim Istrefi (Utrecht University)

16.45 – 17.00 Matteo Bonelli (Maastricht University)

Closing Words

