

Dear Sir,
Dear Madam,

I would like to draw your attention to the new vacancies (AAP-2021-109, AAP-2021-119 and BAP-2021-304) published by the Institute for European Law of KU Leuven and would be most grateful if you could please broadly disseminate.

The Institute for European Law of KU Leuven (more here) is currently recruiting assistants to support the teaching activities for the Institute (two positions: 5% and 65%) as well as to work under the supervision of Prof. Elise Muir on the RESHUFFLE project (one position: 35%). This large scale research project reflects on the changing constitutional landscape for the protection of fundamental rights in Europe, investigating the implications of the increasingly strong driving role of the European Union in the field (more here). It is funded by the European Research Council.

For more information or application (before 18 May 2021) please use the following links:

<https://www.kuleuven.be/personeel/jobsite/jobs/60017080?hl=en&lang=en>

<https://www.kuleuven.be/personeel/jobsite/jobs/60016697?hl=en&lang=en>

<https://www.kuleuven.be/personeel/jobsite/jobs/60016845?hl=en&lang=en>

It is possible to combine these positions to have a full-time contract (please apply for all positions concerned).

Kind regards,

Prof. dr. Elise Muir

Head of the Department for International and
European Law | KU Leuven
Faculty of Law | Tiensestraat 41 | 3000 Leuven
Institute for European Law box 3424

📞 +32 16 37 34 25

@ elise.muir@kuleuven.be

Principal Investigator of RESHUFFLE, ERC funded. More information and updates on our website.

INSTITUTE FOR EUROPEAN LAW

European Research Council
Established by the European Commission