

Society of European Contract Law (SECOLA)

Call for Papers

The Society of European Contract Law (secola.org) will hold its annual conference on the 17th and 18th of June 2022 at the University of Zurich.

The topic of this year's annual conference is:

European Sales Law in the 21st Century

We invite young scholars to hand in proposals on “young trends in sales law”. The proposal should be 1-2 pages long, specifying the novelty of the research question, ideally with links to more recent reforms or reform projects. Following areas might be of particular interest and would well fit into the programme:

- Intersections of sales law and product liability
- Specific problems of online sales (e.g. payment by cryptocurrencies/platforms and liability)
- Law and economics of sales law

The main criteria for selection are novelty of the topic – having regard as well how fitting they are in the overall programme.

The deadline is the 7th of November 2021, 24:00 CET.

The proposals should be sent to yesim.atamer@rwi.uzh.ch.
